Welcome to Amsterdam

The I amsterdam City Card has been Amsterdam's official city card since 1966. With the City Card, you get free access to over 70 museums & attractions, citywide public transport and canal cruises. Enjoy the city and the region even further with our selected discounts on attractions, rentals and theaters.

This guide offers a complete list of the museums, attractions, transport and cruises that are free or discounted with your card. Unforeseen circumstances might cause a change in this list. You will always find an up to date list on iamsterdam.com/citycard or in the City Card app.

We hope you have a wonderful time in Amsterdam!

Using your City Card

Activating your Card

Your City Card is activated when you first use it. If you, for example, chose a validity of 24 hours, it will run out 24 hours after activating it.

The card can be activated any time before 31 December 2024 and is then valid for the number of hours you purchased.

Using your Card

- To visit a museum or attraction, show your card at the ticket counter. You can use your Card only once in each participating location.
- You can take one free canal cruise in each city. Choose one of the boarding locations indicated on the map and show your Card at the ticket counter. You can find the most up to date list of boarding locations and the departure times on iamsterdam.com/citycard or in the app.
- Use your free access to citywide public transport by simply checking in and out with your Card on every journey. All GVB (blue and white) buses, trams and metros are included.
- Get your discount at any participating location by showing your Card at the counter or when you're placing your booking.

Timeslots

For some museums or attractions you are required to book a timeslot before your visit. You can find information on for which locations this is mandatory on iamsterdam.com/timeslots.

Surcharges

Please note that you may be required to pay a supplement to visit special exhibitions in museums and for special boat tours.

Information & help desk

If you have any questions or problems regarding your City Card, come see us at our I amsterdam Store inside Amsterdam Central Station (check current opening hours on iamsterdam.com/store) or reach out to us at citycard@iamsterdam.com.

Terms & Conditions

The City Card is strictly for the use of individual cardholders. Once activated, it is non-transferable and cannot be shared. No refunds are provided on City Cards that have been purchased, lost or stolen. For more information about using your City Card, please read the Terms & Conditions on iamsterdam.com/citycard.

Disclaimer

Public transport in Amsterdam

With the I amsterdam City Card, you can use Amsterdam's citywide public transport for free. That means any GVB (blue and white) bus, tram or metro. Night buses are also included, but don't forget that trams and metros stop running after 00:30. You can also use the ferries – they're free for everyone. Check gvb.nl for actual timings and schedules.

Make sure to check in and out for each journey by simply holding your Card up to the card reader. On your first trip, your Card is automatically activated and will be valid for the number of hours you purchased.

Public transport in the Amsterdam Area

Planning to explore the region? Public transport outside of Amsterdam is not included in your City Card. You can purchase additional public transport tickets at the I amsterdam Store (inside Amsterdam Central Station), like the Amsterdam & Region Travel Ticket (ARTT) – a great way to discover the Amsterdam Area!

Get the free I amsterdam City Card app and make it even easier to explore the city!

Browse through the list of museums and attractions and get suggestions based on your preferences. Save your favourite locations and simply click on them to find them on the map. Stay up to date as to for which locations you are required to book a timeslot before your visit. When using the app with a physical city card it's not possible to add the card number to the app.

Multiple cards on one device? Simply click on the "Share" button in the app to move them to another device easily!
